A happy characteristic of Everybody's Magazine is the versatility exhibited in its contents. The editors are not riveted to a single set of ideas, but manage in each issue to strike some new note or touch some novel phase of life or endeavor. There are two salient features in the May issue, which though serious in tone and treatment, are of so much importance to the world just now as to have an almost sensational interest. One is on the Great White Plague, Consumption; the second, the subject which the Methodist church Conference is debating with so much ardor—the relation of Christianity to amusement; may the Christian dance, play cards, and attend the play?

"Busy Izzy."

George Sidney as "Izzy" in the musical farce comedy, "Busy Izzy" will be the attraction at the Barre opera house May 5. Sidney's statue stands him in good stead in this characterization, for it has given him an individuality which is unmistakable in the ranks of comedians who essay the character of the stage Hebrew. The Jew, as shown by this comedian, is as pleasing to the Hebrew race as to all others. This good natured, laughing little fellow, who is always imposed upon rather than imposing, is ever ready for any new scheme. It is all wrapped up in musical farce, and songs, dances and specialty features fill in making "Busy Izzy" an entertainment for all kinds of laughter. There are two acts to the entertainment, a department store and a summer hotel. Among the new songs are "Anna, My Dixie Anna," "Tommy and Me," "I Never Had Such a Time," "I Want to Go Back to Old London," "The French Souffle," "She Reads the New York Papers Every Day," and "Beautiful Dream Come True." The company numbers 45 people and contain many first water fun makers.
